Game Notes

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL EMBARKS ON NEW SEASON... On what is the 40th anniversary of Title IX, women's basketball at Gustavus has been seen on the campus of Gustavus Adolphus College since the turn of the 20th century. On February 14, 1903, it was women who played the first intercollegiate basketball game at Gustavus. On that date, the Gusties took on Mankato Normal at the local Opera House, falling by the score of 16-2. Since that time, the Gustavus women's basketball team has compiled a record of 605-413 overall and 431-234 in the MIAC. The Gusties have won two MIAC Championships, while Laurie Kelly is the 10th head coach in the history of the program.

DEMOGRAPHICS... The 2012-13 Gustavus Adolphus women's basketball roster features 18 student-athletes from a total of three states across the upper midwest. Home-grown natives of the Land of the 10, 000 Lakes make up the blunt of the roster with 15 players hailing from Minnesota. Illinois is represented by senior Jessica Richert and first-year Kelle Nett, while Kaitlin Kwasniewski is a product of Minnesota's western neighbor South Dakota.

LAST TIME OUT... The Gustavus women's basketball team used a strong second half surge on the way to its first MIAC victory of the season on Wednesday night, defeating Augsburg by the score of 63-52. The Gusties shot 65.2-percent from the field in the second half, while Abby Rothenbuehler led the way in scoring with a career-best 23 points on 8-of-11 shooting. She also gathered a game-high nine rebounds and had five blocked shots.

2012-13 GUSTAVUS ADOLPHUS WOMEN'S BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

Game Notes

After Augsburg grabbed a 30-25 lead in the second half, Gustavus responded with a 13-3 scoring run to go up 38-33 with 13:47 left. A pair of Britta Rinke free throws with 5:18 on the clock gave the Gusties their largest lead of the game at 59-40. The Auggies couldn't recover and the Black and Gold held on for its 16th straight win in the conference opener.

THE SERIES... Saturday's contest will be the 63rd meeting between Gustavus and Saint Benedict in women's basketball. The Blazers hold the advantage in the all-time series with a record of 43-19. The Gusties swept Saint Ben's in the regular season series last year through an 81-64 win in St. Peter, and an 84-75 victory in St. Joseph.

ABOUT THE BLAZERS... The Saint Benedict women's basketball team comes into Saturday's bout the top scoring team in the conference with a 73.5 points per game average. The Blazers are most recently coming off an 87-72 win over Hamline on Wednesday night in Claire Lynch Hall. CSB turned in its best offensive performance of the season against the Pipers, shooting 51-percent from the field and finishing with four players in double figures. Morgan Dale led the team off the bench with 17 points after going 4-for-8 from the floor and 7-for-8 at free throw line.

Through their first four games of the season, the Blazers have utilized a balanced scoring attack that now features seven players averaging over seven points per game. Whitney Canton is the only player on the squad averaging double digit points at 11.3 ppg. As a team, the Blazers are shooting 40.4-percent from the field, yet have struggled from three-point range, shooting 22.7-percent from beyond the arc.

ROTHENBUEHLER HAS A NIGHT... Gustavus senior post Abby Rothenbuehler had a career night in Monday's MIAC-opener, matching her career-best scoring performance with 23 points after knocking down 8-of-11 shots from the floor. Rothenbuehler's first 23-point game came against Saint Mary's on Feb. 8, 2012, last season. Her five blocked shots against the Auggies is also a career-best, while the senior came just shy of that elusive first double-double of the season after bringing down nine boards.

RINKE OFF THE PINE... Junior wing Britta Rinke has proven to be a valuable scoring piece off the Gustavus bench over the past two games. Rinke led the team in scoring with 13 points on Monday night against Minnesota State and then scored a season-high 16 points against the Auggies. Over the last two contests, Rinke is 12-for-17 (.706) from the field and 4-for-4 at the free throw line. She is currently averaging 9.5 points per game on the year, ranking her fourth on the team.

BY THE NUMBERS...

14 - The amount of steals per game Saint Ben's is averaging this season, ranking them first in the MIAC. The Blazers are forcing an average of 21.8 turnovers per game, which places them third in the MIAC.

1 - Where Abby Rothenbuehler's rebounding total ranks in the MIAC. "Roth" has brought down 38 boards and also leads the league in rebounds per game with a 9.5 average.

126 - The league-leading number of free throw attempts Saint Ben's has put up so far this year. The Blazers have gone to the charity stripe 34 more times than the next highest team in the MIAC. They sit third in the league in free throw shooting at 72.2-percent, while Gustavus ranks fourth at 71.2-percent.

2012-13 GUSTAVUS ADOLPHUS WOMEN'S BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

Head Coach Laurie Kelly

First Season

2-2 at Gustavus

223-193 Overall

Office: 507-933-6145

Email: lkelly@gustavus.edu

Laurie Kelly is currently in her first season as the head coach of the Gustavus women's basketball team. Kelly, a 1993 graduate of the University of St. Thomas with a major in speech communications, replaces Mickey Haller, who resigned in March of 2012 after serving as the head coach for 12 years. Kelly comes to Gustavus from Northern Arizona University in Flagstaff, where she has directed the Division I Lumberjacks for the past nine seasons.

A Rochester, Minnesota, native, Kelly made a quick ascent through the Division II and I coaching ranks after a record setting Division III playing career at the University of St. Thomas in the early '90s. In the past nine years at Northern Arizona, she has compiled the most wins in the program's history (117), while also directing the team to its first-ever Big Sky Conference tournament title and NCAA tournament bid in the 2005-06 season. During Kelly's tenure, the Lumberjacks advanced to the Big Sky tournament six times with two appearances in the championship game (2006, 2007), and her teams have registered two of the three 20-win seasons in the program's history.

In addition to quality on the floor, her squads have also been strong in the classroom, with four players earning CoSIDA Academic All-District honors including one Academic All-American. The Lumberjacks were recognized in the Women's Basketball Coaches Association Top 25 Academic Honor Roll six times, with two Top Ten national rankings.

Prior to her position at Northern Arizona, Kelly coached at Binghamton University in New York and built the Bearcats into one of the top Division II programs in the country before helping the institution transition to a Division I program in 2001-02. In that first year of Division I competition, Kelly directed the team to a 19-9 record and a second-place finish in the America East Conference. During her five years at Binghamton, Kelly compiled a record of 94-22, including a mark of 75-13 in the program's final three years at the Division II level, and her squads won New England Collegiate Conference (NECC) titles in 1999 and 2000 and Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference (ECAC) titles in 2000 and 2001. She was named ECAC Coach of the Year in 2000 and New York State Coach of the Year in 2002. Kelly started her collegiate coaching career as the graduate assistant coach at Minnesota State University, Mankato from 1996 to 1998. While she was at Minnesota State, Mankato she earned a master's degree in physical education with an emphasis in sports administration.

Before her success in the coaching ranks, Laurie Trow Kelly was a standout player at the University of St. Thomas from 1989 to 1993 and is recognized by many as one of the greatest players in NCAA Division III history. A gifted athlete, the 6-1 Kelly scored 2,607 points and pulled down 1,204 rebounds in four years, earning Kodak All-America honors three consecutive seasons. In her senior season (1992-93), Kelly was voted National Player of the Year by the Women's Basketball Coaches Association after averaging more than 26 points per game. She set 22 conference and 24 school records, was conference MVP three times and was also named Midwest Sports Channel NCAA Division III Women's Athlete of the Year. In January of 2006, Kelly was one of five players selected to the NCAA Division III 25th Anniversary Team.

Laurie Kelly is the ninth head coach in the 44-year history of the Gustavus women's basketball program. The Gusties have compiled an all-time record of 603-411 (.594), winning two Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference championships and making five NCAA tournament appearances.

In addition to her coaching duties, Kelly will serve as the coordinator of the Gustavus Health Promotion program (GHP). The Gustavus Health Promotion program offers employees at Gustavus a variety of educational opportunities, assessment tools, and physical activity experiences so that they can achieve and maintain a healthy lifestyle.

Kelly lives in St. Peter with and her husband, Matt, and their two daughters, Morgan (9) and Madison (7).
