MEET THE GUSTAVUS COACHING STAFF... Head coach Mark Hanson begins his 23rd season at the helm of the Gustavus men's basketball program. Assistant coach Josh Drinkall begins his sixth season as the lead assistant for the Gustie men's basketball team. Primarily working with the defense, Drinkall has coached two MIAC All-Defensive players in his first five years. Prior to coming to Gustavus, Drinkall worked as an assistant coach for six seasons at Winona State University where he was a part of the 2006 NCAA Division II National Championship and a second place finish in 2007.

way. That core group of seniors includes three of the top five scorers from last year's team in Ben Biewen (Sr., Edina, Minn.), Jim Hill (Sr., Edina, Minn.), and Blake Shay (Sr., Lakeville, Minn.). Reed Sallstrom (Sr., Winthrop, Minn.) will also add experience as a returning senior.

Outside of the four seniors, the Gusties return just 20 points and 192 minutes of play from last year's squad. Lone junior Jordan Dick (Jr., Wabasha, Minn.) will look to add production to the Gustie lineup, while Isaac Tapp (So., Stewartville, Minn.) will serve as the team's primary ball handler after playing in eight games last season. Sophomores Martin Feddersen (So., Winona, Minn.), Brian Jacobs (So., Lake Crystal, Minn.), and Jed Kreuser (So., Jordan, Minn.) are all expect to contribut in their second season. Newcomers Matt Humphries (So., Maple Grove, Minn.), Dane Schmid (So., Mahtomedi, Minn.), Sergio Najera (Fr., New Prague, Minn.), Connor Perry (Fr., Hibbing, Minn.), Chad Poppen (Fr., St. Peter, Minn.), and Brody Ziegler (Fr., Mankato, Minn.) will also look to make an impact in their first collegiate varsity season.

LAST TIME OUT... Gustavus captured its first MIAC victory of the season with an 83-79 win over St. Olaf on Monday night in Northfield. The first half proved to be a back-and-forth battle with each team going stride-for-stride with the other. Neither team was able to extend its lead to more than five in a half that featured 14 lead changes and eight ties.

With a 40-38 advantage at halftime, the Oles extended their lead to six (46-40) in the early minutes of the second half. The Gusties responded with a 16-4 run to take a six-point lead of their own with 12:20 left in regulation. From there, Gustavus would lose the lead only once when Josh Pratt hit a three at the 6:31 mark. A Ben Biewen three on the ensuing possession gave the lead right back to the Gusties, who would hold on to the advantage for the remainder of the contest. St. Olaf cut the deficit to one on two separate occasions, but Gustavus was able to seal the win at the free throw line, going 11-for-12 from the stripe in the final three minutes.

Five players reached double-figures in the 83-point effort for the Gusties. Biewen led the way with a career-high 20 points. He also tallied six rebounds, four assists, and two steals. Jim Hill followed Biewen with 18 points, while Jordan Dick scored in double figures for the second consecutive game with 12 points. Reed Sallstrom found his way into double-figures for the first time this season, coming off the bench to score 12 points on a perfect 5-for-5 shooting night from the field and going 2-for-2 from the charity stripe. Blake Shay also contributed 10 points in the contest, all of which came in the first half.

ABOUT THE ROYALS... Bethel enters Wednesday night's match-up with an overall record of 2-4, and an MIAC mark of 0-3. After beginning the year 2-1, the Royals are on a three-game skid, losing to Concordia (73-65), Carleton (64-62), and Augsburg (59-50). As a team, the Royals average 67.7 points per game (7th/MIAC), while giving up 70.3 points per game (5th/MIAC).

Bethel is led by 2011-12 All-Conference recipient Taylor Hall. Hall leads the conference in points per game (24.3) and rebounds per game (10.8). He is also fourth in the league in field goal percentage (63.8). Kyle Zimmerman follows Hall, averaging 15.7 points per game and 7.7 rebounds. After missing the first three games due to injury, Zimmerman has started all three games since his return, scoring in double figures in each contest.

Head coach Jeff Westlund is now in his seventh year directing the Bethel men's basketball program. In his tenure, Westlund has led the Royals to a record of 207-246, and has made four appearances in the MIAC postseason, reaching the championship game once.

WHEN IT RAINS, IT POURS... Ben Biewen has led the Gusties in scoring three times this season. On each occasion, he has also led the team in rebounding. Likewise, Jim Hill has led the team in both scoring and rebounding in the same game one time. The only contest this season that the leading scorer for the Gusties has not also been the leading rebounder was on December 1st when Hill paced the team in scoring, and Reed Sallstrom led the squad in rebounding.

SEEKING REVENGE... With the outright regular season championship in their sights, the Gusties dropped the final game of the 2011-12 season to Bethel on senior day in St. Peter by a final score of 68-52. The loss forced Gustavus to share a piece of the title with St. Thomas. The Royals swept the season series a year ago, also defeating the Gusties 75-71 in Arden Hills on Jan. 21st, and leaving room for revenge this season.

ON THIS DATE... The last time Gustavus played on December 5th, it was last season when the Gusties hosted Carleton in a 64-56 victory. Seth Anderson led the way as the only Gustie to score in double figures with 26 points. He also pulled down a team-high seven rebounds.

Twenty-third Season

Mark Hanson is entering his 23rd season as the head coach of the Gustavus Adolphus men's basketball program. During that time, Hanson has directed the team to 11 NCAA Division III National Tournament appearances, including reaching the Final Four for the first time in school history and placing second in the nation during the 2002-03 season.

Last season, Hanson led the Gusties to their first MIAC Championship since the 2004-05 season, sharing the 2011-12 title with St. Thomas. Gustavus went 20-8 overall and 16-4 in the MIAC. The Black and Gold went on to defeat Saint John's 64-52 at home in the semifinals of the MIAC Playoffs before falling 66-62 in overtime to St. Thomas in the MIAC Playoff Championship held in St. Paul. The Gusties earned an at-large bid into the NCAA Tournament for the first time since the 2005 season, drawing Wheaton College in the first round. Gustavus' season ended in the first round with a 68-60 loss to the Thunder in River Falls, Wis.

In the 2010-11 season, Hanson earned his 400th career victory with an 89-78 win over Saint Mary's on Gus Young Court. He became the 65th coach in NCAA Division III history, and 31st active coach, to reach the 400-win milestone. Research indicated that Hanson was the 14th fastest coach to reach 400 victories in Division III history, as becomes just the sixth coach from the MIAC to reach the 400-win plateau.

Hanson, who has compiled a 422-185 overall record at Gustavus, including a 319-121 record in the MIAC, has won seven MIAC Championships, and has been named MIAC Coach of the Year eight times. He has helped guide Gustavus to the MIAC Playoffs 19 times, reaching the finals 14 years and winning the MIAC Playoff Championship on seven occassions. His teams have reached the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament six times and the Elite Eight three times. Hanson has coached 27 players who have garnered 47 All-Conference honors, four MIAC Players of the Year, eight players who have received 13 all-region honors, and three All-Americans. In addition, Hanson has coached one Jostens' Award Finalist (Trevor Wittwer, 2008), which recognizes the top Division III men's basketball player in the nation based on academics, athletics, and community involvement.

Hanson is a 1983 Gustavus graduate and the basketball program's all-time leading scorer with 1,774 points. He was a two-time NAIA All-America and GTE Academic All-America selection, a three-time Gustie MVP and a four-time All-MIAC selection.

A long-time outdoor enthusiast, Hanson earned his master's degree in experiential education at Mankato State University and teaches outdoor education classes in the health and exercise science department. He is also the outdoor program director at the college.

Hanson, a native of Dodge Center, Minnesota, is married to Deb Johnson. Mark and Deb have two children, Hans and Annika, and live in St. Peter.
