THE COACHES

Mike Szkodzinski (St. Norbert 2000) is in his seventh season at Lawrence and has a record of 78-85-13 (.480). Brett Petersen (Denver 1992) is in his 13th season at Gustavus Adolphus and has a record of 171-138-26 (.549).

THE SERIES

Gustavus Adolphus holds a 3-0-0 lead in the series. The teams met for the first time in the 1999-2000 season and also played last season.

LAST WEEKEND

Lawrence swept a weekend Midwest Collegiate Hockey Association series from Finlandia at the Appleton Family Ice Center.

Lawrence turned the tables on Finlandia late in the second period on Friday and went on to a 6-3 victory.

Lawrence trailed 3-2 and was skating two men down due to penalties, but the Vikings killed off the two-man advantage and then scored a pair of goals just moments later to seize the momentum. Lawrence then scored twice in the third period to seal the victory.

The Vikings led 2-1 early in the second period thanks to goals from Brad Scurfield and Phil Bushbacher, but Finlandia scored two goals in a 56-second span midway through the period to grab a 3-2 edge.

Lawrence then took a pair of penalties that left the Lions with a two-man advantage for 1:39. The Vikings killed off the two-man advantage and were still down a skater when Finlandia's Kevin Smith was whistled for a five-minute major and a game misconduct.

With the teams now both skating a man down, Scurfield scored off a face-off at the 13:15 mark to tie the game at 3-3. Just 24 seconds later with Lawrence on the power play, Brandon Boelter's slapshot found the back of the net and the Vikings led 4-3.

Buschbacher then scored 4:08 into the third to put Lawrence up 5-3, and Logan Lemirande added a goal with just 1:41 left to seal the win.

Bushbacher and Scurfield both had a pair of goals, and Lemirande had four assists to go with his goal.

Michael Baldino made 19 saves to pick up the win. Troy Chandler stopped 42 shots for Finlandia and took the loss.

Lawrence scored three times in the first 9:39 of the third period and went on to a 5-2 win on Saturday.

Five different players scored for Lawrence, and Erik Soderlund and Paul Zuke had two assists apiece for the Vikings. Lawrence also scored two short-handed goals, and the Vikings now have five short-handers on the season.

Lawrence led 2-1 entering the third period, and the Vikings quickly pulled away. Bushbacher scored off passes from Lemirande and Zuke just 2:22 into the period for a 3-1 lead. Rudi Pino then scored at the 5:54 mark off passes from Boelter and Soderlund for a 4-1 edge.

After Soderlund got whistled for roughing at 8:12, the Lions (3-6-0, 3-5-0) went on the power play but it was Lawrence that cashed in. Scurfield scored an unassisted short-handed goal at 9:39 for a 5-1 Lawrence lead.

Mike Montrose scored on the power play for Finlandia at the 14:20 mark to cut the lead to 5-2, but that's as close as the Lions would get.

Lawrence jumped on Finlandia early with Huck Saunders scoring for the Vikings just 6:31 into the first period. Lemirande got the first short-handed goal of his career when scored at the 8:07 mark of the first to put the Vikings up 2-0. Justin Scott scored for Finlandia with just 1:32 left in the second period to trim the margin to 2-1.

Peter Emery made 28 saves to pick up the victory for Lawrence. Troy Chandler stopped 36 shots and took the loss.

VIKINGS UPDATE

►With the two victories last weekend, Lawrence jumped into a tie for fourth place in the Midwest Collegiate Hockey Association with Concordia (Wis.). The Vikings are now second in the Northern Division, four points behind Marian.

►Freshman forward Logan Lemirande (Janesville, Wis.) was chosen as the Midwest Collgiate Hockey Association Player of the Week. Lemirande had two goals and five assists in Lawrence's weekend sweep of Finlandia. Lemirande had a goal and four assists in last Friday's win. The four assists ties the second-highest game total in Lawrence history. The record of seven was set by Tom Conti vs. Illinois Benedictine back on Nov. 21, 1998. Lemirande scored his first career short-handed goal and added an assist in Saturday's victory.

►Lemirande ranks second in the Midwest Collegiate Hockey Association at 1.67 points per game. He has three goals and 12 assists for 15 points. Lemirande is tied for the conference lead at 1.33 assists per contest.

►Senior forward

Brad Scurfield (Midland, Mich.) is now in the top 10 in career points. Scurfield picked up four points on the weekend and has 74 for his career, which is good for ninth place on the Lawrence list. He trails Josh Peterson by three points for eighth place. Scurfield also moved up a spot on the career goals list with three goals this past weekend. He is tied with Andy Rozanski for eighth place with 36 goals. One of the goals this past weekend came on the power play, and Scurfield now ranks fourth on that list with 15 goals.

Brad Scurfield

►Freshman defenseman Brandon Boelter (Saginaw, Mich.) is tops in the conference in power-play points at 0.70 per game. He has two goals, and five assists for seven points on the man-advantage. Boelter also leads the league in defenseman scoring with four goals and eight assists for 12 points.

►The short-handed goals continue in droves for the Vikings. Lawrence had two more short-handers over the weekend and now has five on the season. The Lawrence record of seven short-handers was set during the 2007-08 season.

►Lawrence ranks second in the MCHA

2012-13 GAME RECAPS

November 2

Concordia (Wis.) 3, Lawrence 2

MEQUON, Wis. — The Lawrence University hockey team opened its season with a 3-2 Midwest Collegiate Hockey Association loss to Concordia (Wis.) University at the Ozaukee Ice Center.

Lawrence fell behind in the first 30 seconds of the contest and were never able to overtake the Falcons (1-3-0, 1-2-0 MCHA).

Concordia scored just 24 seconds into the game on Devin Stuermer's unassisted goal. Huck Saunders scored on the power play for the Vikings to tie the game at 1-1 just 7:35 into the first period.

Kevin Michaelcavage countered with a power-play goal for Concordia early in the second period, and the score stayed that way until Travis Payne scored at the 15:12 mark of the third for a 3-1 lead.

Brandon Boelter got his first collegiate goal for Lawrence just 46 seconds later off a pass from Brad Scurfield to trim the lead to 3-2, but that's as close as the Vikings would get.

Goaltender Jake Hebda made 31 saves to earn the win, and Peter Emery stopped 30 shots for the Vikings and took the loss.

November 3

Concordia (Wis.) 3, Lawrence 2

APPLETON, Wis. — The Concordia (Wis.) University hockey team rallied for three goals in the third period and posted a 3-2 Midwest Collegiate Hockey Association win over Lawrence University at the Appleton Family Ice Center.

Lawrence (0-2-0, 0-2-0 MCHA) led 1-0 after Brad Scurfield's power-play goal at the 12:35 mark of the second period.

Concordia (2-3-0, 2-2-0) evened the score at 1-1 on Franco Loparco's goal just 1:47 into the third period. The Falcons struck again with a power-play goal from Devin Stuermer at 3:34 to take a 2-1 advantage.

The Vikings came back to tie it at 2-2 on Phil Bushbacher's goal at 13:50, but the Falcons took advantage of a power play to regain the lead. Dan Schilts scored on the man-advantage at 15:15 to give Concordia a 3-2 edge.

Concordia was on the power play again in the final minute when the Vikings pulled goaltender Peter Emery for an extra skater, but Lawrence couldn't get the equalizer.

Emery made 26 saves and took the loss. Jake Hebda made 29 saves for the victory.

November 9

Lawrence 10, Northland 1

ASHLAND, Wis.

— The Lawrence University hockey team exploded for nine goals in the final two periods and rolled to a 10-1 Midwest Collegiate Hockey Association victory over Northland College.

Lawrence (1-2-0, 1-2-0 MCHA) got a pair of goals from both senior Brad Scurfield and freshman Rudi Pino. Peter Emery made 15 saves to pick up the win.

The game was tied 1-1 early in the second period when Phil Bushbacher scored on the power play to give Lawrence a 2-1 edge at the 5:38 mark.

Pino then got his first collegiate goal at the 10:04 mark, and the Vikings racked up three more goals in the next 5:34. Scurfield and Gustav Lindgren scored, and freshman Matt Moore capped the outburst with his first collegiate goal, a short-hander, at the 15:39 mark for a 6-1 lead.

Lawrence made it 7-1 on Derek Brickan's first goal of the season early in the period, and Scurfield added a power-play goal midway through the period for an 8-1 edge.

The Vikings added goals from William Thoren and Pino in the final 5:06 to cap the scoring.

The 10 goals is the most for Lawrence since a 10-5 victory over Concordia (Wis.) University back on Jan. 19, 2008.

Mason Riley allowed all 10 goals, made 39 saves and took the loss for Northland (0-3-0, 0-3-0). Lawrence held a 49-16 edge in shots on goal.

November 10

Lawrence 8, Northland 6

ASHLAND, Wis. —

The Lawrence University hockey team won a wild 8-6 Midwest Collegiate Hockey Association shootout with Northland College at the Bay Area Civic Center.

Lawrence (2-2-0, 2-2-0 MCHA) trailed 3-0 early, rallied for a 6-3 lead and then needed a penalty shot and empty-net goal to seal the victory over the Lumberjacks (0-4-0, 0-4-0).

Erik Soderlund scored a pair of goals for the Vikings, and Logan Lemirande and Rudi Pino both had three points. Senior goaltender Michael Baldino came on in relief and made 16 saves to pick up the victory for Lawrence.

Lawrence trailed 3-0 until Lemirande scored on the power play at the 17:44 mark of the first period. That started a run of six consecutive goals by the Vikings as Soderlund scored twice and Gustav Lindgren, Phil Bushbacher and Brandon Boelter all added goals to give Lawrence a 6-3 lead with 6:22 left in the second period.

The Lumberjacks came back and scored a power-play goal to cut the lead to 6-4 after two periods. Northland was 2-for-6 on the power play and Lawrence was 3-for-4.

Kraig Wright and Louis Labbe both scored for Northland in the first 6:32 of the third period to tie the score at 6-6.

Lawrence then got a penalty shot goal from freshman Matt Moore at the 12:24 mark to grab a 7-6 edge. It was the first penalty shot goal for the Vikings since Jon Bellotti scored at Adrian College on Jan. 23, 2010.

The Lumberbacks pulled goaltender Vincent DiCarlo late, and Brad Scurfield scored an empty-netter with 13 seconds left to seal the victory. DiCarlo made 35 saves as the Vikings piled up a 43-33 advantage in shots.

November 15

Marian 3, Lawrence 2

FOND DU LAC, Wis. — The Marian University hockey team rallied for a pair of third-period goals to pull out a 3-2 Midwest Collegiate Hockey Association victory over Lawrence University at the Blue Line Ice Center.

Lawrence (2-3-0, 2-3-0 MCHA) led 2-1 heading to the third period, but the Sabres (3-3-1, 3-2-0) scored twice in the first seven minutes of the final period.

Lucas Mertz scored his first goal of the season just 4:13 into third period to tie the game at 2-2. Ashton Reinboldt then gave the Sabres the lead for good with his goal at the 6:53 mark.

Lawrence pulled goaltender Peter Emery for the final 1:14 but couldn't get the equalizer. Emery made 35 saves and took the loss.

Marian pulled ahead 1-0 on Aaron Leonard's goal with 2:21 remaining in the first period. That lead didn't last as Phil Bushbacher scored his third goal of the season, a power-play tally, off a pass from Brandon Boelter with just 23 seconds left in the first.

Lawrence grabbed a 2-1 lead at 5:54 of the second when Brad Scurfield scored off passes from Bushbacher and Rudi Pino.

Marian goaltender Josh Baker didn't allow anything the rest of the way and finished with 33 saves.

November 16

Marian 4, Lawrence 3 (OT)

APPLETON, Wis. — Brian Berger scored 1:19 into overtime to lift the Marian University hockey team to a 4-3 Midwest Collegiate Hockey Association victory over Lawrence University on Friday night at the Appleton Family Ice Center.

Berger's goal capped a rally by Marian (4-3-1, 4-2-0 MCHA), which trailed 2-0 entering the final period. This marks the third time in four losses this season by Lawrence (2-4-0, 2-4-0) in which the Vikings led entering the third period.

Brandon Boelter gave Lawrence a 1-0 lead at the 7:27 mark of the first period, and the Vikings increased that lead to 2-0 when Paul Zuke scored just 12 seconds into the second period.

Lawrence held that advantage until the Sabres got a 5-on-3 power play early in the third period. Ashton Reinboldt scored on the two-man advantage to trim the lead to 2-1 at the 5:19 mark.

The Sabres then tied it on Tyler Klein's goal at the 13:12 mark, and Brendan Roberts scored just 3:23 later to put the Sabres up 3-2.

Lawrence pulled goaltender Peter Emery late, and the Vikings got the equalizer with the extra attacker. Phil Bushbacher scored for Lawrence with just 24 seconds remaining to tie it at 3-3 and force the overtime.

Emery made 22 saves and took the loss, and Josh Baker made 22 saves for Marian to pick up the win.

November 23

St. Scholastica 9, Lawrence 2

DE PERE, Wis. — The College of St. Scholastic scored three goals in the first five minutes and rolled to a 9-2 non-conference victory over Lawrence University in the Northern Collegiate Hockey Association/Midwest Collegiate Hockey Association Thanksgiving Classic at the Cornerstone Community Center.

Brenden Kotyk and Brandon Nowakowski both had two goals and two assists to pace St. Scholastica (2-5-0).

Renato Engler scored his first career goal for Lawrence (2-5-0), and Rudi Pino added a short-handed goal for the Vikings.

The Saints led 3-0 just 4:59 into the game and held that advantage into the second period. St. Scholastica then scored three goals, including two by Nowakowski, in the first 9:09 of the second period to pull away.

Engler finally got Lawrence on the board with a power-play goal at 17:19 of the second. Pino scored his short-hander with just 50 seconds left in the game.

Michael Baldino made 40 saves and took the loss for Lawrence, which was out-shot 49-18. Colin Rundell made 16 saves to pick up the win.

November 24

No. 6 St. Norbert 6, Lawrence 3

DE PERE, Wis. — For the second night in a row, the Lawrence University hockey team fell behind early and lost at the Northern Collegiate Hockey Association/Midwest Collegiate Hockey Association Thanksgiving Classic at the Cornerstone Community Center.

Sixth-ranked St. Norbert College jumped out to a 3-0 lead in the first period and went on a 6-3 nonconference win over the Vikings (2-6-0).

The Green Knights (8-2-1) scored three times in the first 9:52 before freshman defenseman Steve Hughes got his first career goal for the Vikings at the 11:10 mark to trim the lead to 3-1.

Carl Eckstrom then scored on the power play for St. Norbert, and the Green Knights led 4-1 after the opening period. St. Norbert converted 3 of 6 chances on the power play while Lawrence was 0-for-3.

Kyle Stroh pushed the St. Norbert lead to 5-1 with a goal in the second, but Lawrence battled back late in the third. Renato Engler and Derek Brickman scored just 46 seconds apart to cut the lead to 5-3 with 4:10 left.

Stroh then sealed the win and completed a hat trick with a power-play goal for St. Norbert with 3:27 left.

Travis Bosch made 24 saves to pick up the win, and Anton Olsson stopped 31 shots and took the loss.

November 30

Lawrence 6, Finlandia 3

APPLETON, Wis.

— The Lawrence University hockey team turned the tables on Finlandia University late in the second period and went on to a 6-3 Midwest Collegiate Hockey Association victory over the Lions at the Appleton Family Ice Center.

Lawrence (3-6-0, 3-4-0 MCHA) trailed 3-2 and was skating two men down due to penalties, but the Vikings killed off the two-man advantage and then scored a pair of goals just moments later to seize the momentum. Lawrence then scored twice in the third period to seal the victory.

The Vikings led 2-1 early in the second period thanks to goals from Brad Scurfield and Phil Bushbacher, but Finlandia (3-5-0, 3-4-0) scored two goals in a 56-second span midway through the period to grab a 3-2 edge.

Lawrence then took a pair of penalties that left the Lions with a two-man advantage for 1:39. The Vikings killed off the two-man advantage and were still down a skater when Finlandia's Kevin Smith was whistled for a five-minute major and a game misconduct.

With the teams now both skating a man down, Scurfield scored off a face-off at the 13:15 mark to tie the game at 3-3. Just 24 seconds later with Lawrence on the power play, Brandon Boelter's slapshot found the back of the net and the Vikings led 4-3.

Buschbacher then scored 4:08 into the third to put Lawrence up 5-3, and Logan Lemirande added a goal with just 1:41 left to seal the win.

Bushbacher and Scurfield both had a pair of goals, and Lemirande had four assists to go with his goal.

Michael Baldino made 19 saves to pick up the win. Troy Chandler stopped 42 shots for Finlandia and took the loss.

December 1

Lawrence 5, Finlandia 2

APPLETON, Wis.

— The Lawrence University hockey team scored three times in the first 9:39 of the third period and went on to a 5-2 Midwest Collegiate Hockey Association victory over Finlandia University at the Appleton Family Ice Center.

Five different players scored for Lawrence (4-6-0, 4-4-0 MCHA), and Erik Soderlund and Paul Zuke had two assists apiece for the Vikings. Lawrence also scored two short-handed goals, and the Vikings now have five short-handers on the season.

Lawrence led 2-1 entering the third period, and the Vikings quickly pulled away. Phil Bushbacher scored off passes from Logan Lemirande and Zuke just 2:22 into the period for a 3-1 lead. Rudi Pino then scored at the 5:54 mark off passes from Brandon Boelter and Soderlund for a 4-1 edge.

After Soderlund got whistled for roughing at 8:12, the Lions (3-6-0, 3-5-0) went on the power play but it was Lawrence that cashed in. Brad Scurfield scored an unassisted short-handed goal at 9:39 for a 5-1 Lawrence lead.

Mike Montrose scored on the power play for Finlandia at the 14:20 mark to cut the lead to 5-2, but that's as close as the Lions would get.

Lawrence jumped on Finlandia early with Huck Saunders scoring for the Vikings just 6:31 into the first period. Lemirande got the first short-handed goal of his career when scored at the 8:07 mark of the first to put the Vikings up 2-0. Justin Scott scored for Finlandia with just 1:32 left in the second period to trim the margin to 2-1.

Peter Emery made 28 saves to pick up the victory for Lawrence. Troy Chandler stopped 36 shots and took the loss.
