ABOUT THE WEEKEND

The 2014 NCAA Division III men's soccer season officially opens up for four members of the north region this weekend in St. Peter. For the first time since 2012, the Gustavus Adolphus men's soccer program is set to host a kickoff tournament that signifies the beginning of another season. Along with host Gustavus, this year's tournament field features Carroll University of the Midwest Conference, Concordia College of the Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference, and Wartburg College of the Iowa Intercollegiate Athletic Conference. The Gustavus Classic will begin on Friday, Aug. 29 with Wartburg taking on Concordia at 12:00 p.m., and Gustavus facing Carroll at 2:00 p.m.

The Gustavus and Wartburg men's soccer programs are both coming off a 2013 season that saw them earn trips to the NCAA Tournament. After winning the 2013 MIAC regular season title with a perfect record of 10-0-0, the Gusties earned an at-large berth into the NCAA Tournament. Gustavus defeated St. Scholastica 2-1 in overtime in the opening round before seeing its season come to an end with a 1-0 loss to Westminster in the second round. Wartburg won a share of the IIAC title with a league record of 6-1-0 and also earned an at-large bid into the NCAA Tournament. The Knights defeated Dominican 4-0 and Hope 2-1 in overtime in the first and second rounds, respectively, before falling to Trinity 2-1 in overtime in the third round. Gustavus finished its season 14-4-1, while Wartburg went 17-5-2.

The Carroll men's soccer team finished last season 13-4-2 overall and second in the MWC with a league record of 9-1-0. The Pioneers' campaign came to an end in the MWC Tournament Semifinals where they played St. Norbert to a 0-0 tie but fell 4-3 in a penalty shootout. The Concordia men's soccer team is looking for a turnaround this season after going 5-12-1 overall and finishing 10th in the MIAC at 2-8-0 a year ago.

2013 SNAPSHOT

The Gustavus men's soccer team had one of the most successful seasons in the history of the program in 2013. Under the direction of Mike Middleton in his fourth season as Head Coach, the Gusties won their second straight and 14th all-time MIAC Championship after going after going a perfect 10-0-0 in league play. This year's Gustavus team was just the fifth in the history of the MIAC to win the conference title with an unblemished and perfect record. Mike Middleton was named the MIAC Coach-of-the-Year for the first time in his career, while his standout forward, Zach Brown (Eau Claire, Wis.) was named the MIAC Player-of-the-Year. To go along with the honors received by Middleton and Brown, a total five players including midfielder David Lilly (Maple Grove, Minn.), defender Zach Schmith (Sioux Falls, S.D.), midfielder Sean Sendelbach (Sioux Falls, S.D.), and goalkeeper Brett Ylonen (Lake Elmo, Minn.) were named to the all-conference team.

The Gusties finished their 2013 campaign with an overall record of 14-4-1. Following the season, Zach Brown, Brett Ylonen, and David Lilly earned a place on the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) all-region team. Brown was later named to the NSCAA/Continental Tire NCAA Division III Men's All-American Team, garnering a place on the second team.

MIDDLETON ON THE WEEKEND

On the playing side, we look up and ready for the challenge. You cannot take anything for granted playing top teams, and each game is going to be highly competitive. That's great for the fans, as well as the players. We are knocking the ball around really well - hopefully we can take that in to the match situations. We've developed the reputation of being a side very good in possession. I'm not sure you'll see a lot of physicality, banging and long balls from us, and without giving our opposition too much information, I think you'll see us try to play. But, as mentioned earlier, that's the reputation we have garnered in the region and nationally. It may not always work, but the philosophy is always the same, we try to play the way that the players enjoy, and a style that develops them as players.

I think you will see four very good teams this weekend. It should be a nice festival of soccer. A highly palatable feast for the soccer connoisseurs amongst us!
