ABOUT THE MATCH

Now back on Minnesota soil, the Gustavus Adolphus men's soccer team will be on its home pitch with a non-conference test against the Knights of Martin Luther College on Wednesday, Sept. 10. After defeating Pacific Lutheran University 3-0 on Friday and falling to the University of Puget Sound 3-2 on Sunday during their trip to the Pacific Northwest, the Gusties begin a new week with an overall record of 3-2-0. Martin Luther has been on field just twice this season and is 0-2-0 after a loss to Wisconsin Lutheran (5-1) and, most recently, a loss to Buena Vista University (2-1) on Thursday in New Ulm.

ABOUT LAST WEEKEND

The Gustavus men's soccer team kicked off its trip to the Tacoma, Washington region with a 3-0 victory over Pacific Lutheran. After Zach Brown (Sr., Eau Claire, Wis.) scored just 4:10 in to the match, Jason Schwab (Jr., Stillwater, Minn.) added goals at 38:44 and 47:18 to allow Gustavus the three-goal win. Goalkeepers Brett Ylonen (Jr., Lake Elmo, Minn.) and Braden Schmid (Sr., West Fargo, N.D.) each played a half and combined for three saves in the split-shutout.

Against Puget Sound on Sunday, Gustavus found itself with a 2-0 lead within the first 14 minutes of the match. Patrick Roth (So., Stillwater, Minn.) scored at 3:37 and Ryan Tollefsrud (Sr., Spearfish, S.D.) put the Gusties up 2-0 with a goal at 13:22. Tollefsrud's goal signified the end of Gustavus's scoring and the start of the Oliver Field show. Field cut the lead to 2-1 with a goal at 24:59 and tied the match with a goal at 39:29. Then, just :28 seconds into the second half, Field completed a hat trick with the eventual game-winner. Brett Ylonen and Braden Schmid split time between the posts with Ylonen taking the first half and Schmid taking the second. Ylonen allowed two goals and made one save, while Schmid allowed the game-winner and was not tested otherwise.

SERIES HISTORY

Wednesday's match will be the eighth meeting between Gustavus and Martin Luther in men's soccer. The Gusties hold the upper hand in the all-time series with a record of 6-0-0. In the last meeting between the two schools on Sept. 11, 2013 in New Ulm, Gustavus ran away with a 7-0 win after receiving goals from six different players.

NEWS AND NOTES

• Across Borders - Sunday's match against Puget Sound held in Tacoma, Washington signified the end of Gustavus's regular season contests outside the state of Minnesota. Under the direction Mike Middleton, Gustavus holds a record of 7-1-1 in matches contested outside the confines of Minnesota.

• Done Streaking - Junior defender Jason Schwab's red-hot scoring-streak came to an end in Gustavus's 3-2 loss to Puget Sound on Sunday. In the team's previous four matches, Schwab scored at least a point in each bout for a total of 12 points off five goals and two assists. The Stillwater product scored two goals against Bethany on Sept. 3, then scored twice more and added an assist against Pacific Lutheran. Already, Schwab is Gustavus's highest scoring defender since Justin Eglseder tallied 19 points (8G, 3A) in the 2011 season.

• Playing With A Lead - Playing with a lead will be an emphasis of Coach Middleton's from here on out as the Gusties have now dropped two matches during which they scored the opening goal and held a lead. Prior to allowing Puget Sound to comeback down two goals, Gustavus also held a 1-0 advantage on Wartburg before the Knight's came storming back with two second half goals to earn the 2-1 victory. Last season Gustavus was 12-2-0 when scoring first and 5-0-0 when leading at the half.

MIDDLETON ON THE MATCH

The lads are really looking forward to the game for they would much rather play a match than listen to me on the training field. Who can blame them! And, with eight games in twenty-four days, they are certainly making the most of it.

We were disappointed with the loss at Puget Sound, but you can't win every game and undoubtedly tiredness played a huge part. We were terrific in the first 25 minutes, carrying on from an excellent performance against a very good Pacific Lutheran team. I hope the lads have their legs underneath them again after a tiring trip to the Pacific Northwest. We loved Seattle - what's not to love about that place, even the English style rain. But it is nice to be back at home!

Wednesday's game should be fun. It's always nice to play our local teams and not have to travel long distances. These games are vital to us, and we have developed a friendly rapport with Martin Luther. The coach really works hard with his players and is developing a nice program. I'm a big supporter of his.
