ABOUT THE WEEKEND

The Gustavus Adolphus men's soccer team will travel to Tacoma, Washington for a pair of matches against Northwest Athletic Conference opponents this weekend. The Gusties will kick off the trip on Friday, Sept. 5 with a match against the Lutes of Pacific Lutheran University set for 9:00 p.m. (CST). The Black and Gold will then cap weekend on Sunday, Sept. 7 against the Loggers of the University of Puget Sound at 4:00 p.m. (CST). Gustavus heads into its two non-conference tests with an overall record of 2-1-0 after defeating Bethany Lutheran 7-0 on Wednesday in Mankato. Pacific Lutheran is 1-1-0 following a 1-0 loss at Cal Lutheran on Sunday, while Puget Sound comes in looking for its first win at 0-1-1 after suffering a 2-1 loss at Redlands on Sunday.

SERIES HISTORY

Friday's match will be the fourth meeting between the Gustavus and Pacific Lutheran men's soccer programs. The Gusties hold the advantage in the all-time series with a record of 2-1-0. The Lutes won the last meeting between the two clubs on Sept. 7, 2009 in St. Peter.

On Sunday, Gustavus and Puget Sound will square off for the fifth time in their series history. The Gusties hold the upper hand in the matchup with a mark of 3-0-1. They met the Loggers most recently at the Gustavus Classic held Aug. 31-Sept. 2, 2012 in St. Peter. Gustavus won that meeting by the score of 3-2 in overtime thanks to a goal in the 96th minute by Zach Brown (Sr., Eau Claire, Wis.).

NEWS AND NOTES

• Versus The NWC - For the first time since the 2012 season, Gustavus will go up against a member of the Northwest Conference. Of the nine members of the NWC, Gustavus has faced four including Linfield (0-1-0), Pacific Lutheran (2-1-0), Puget Sound (3-0-1), and Whitworth (1-2-1). In the previous 12 matches, the Gusties have compiled a record of 6-4-2 against those NWC institutions. The last time Gustavus took a trip to the Pacific Northwest was to begin its 2008 campaign. The Gusties traveled to Spokane, Washington where they defeated Pacific Lutheran 1-0 on Aug. 29, and fell to Whitworth 4-0 on Aug. 31.

MIDDLETON ON THE MATCH

Two really good games this weekend against regional power houses Pacific Lutheran and Puget Sound. Both teams were ranked in the national top twenty-five last year so this will be a couple of good tests. The Pacific Northwest will be a new experience to nearly all the team. It should provide a wonderful experience for the lads - creating memories for a life-time. This is great for their all-around education.

We are taking a bit of a gamble traveling out to Tacoma early in the morning then playing a 9:00 p.m. (PST) game the same night. Sometimes you just have to take the game and test yourself. They play on turf, which will also be a challenge! The lads are excited to compare themselves to the best of the Northwest Conference. The odds are rather stacked against us, but a win would be something to be proud of.

We play Puget Sound on Sunday at 2:00 p.m. (PST). That should also be a really good game as well. They came to our tournament in 2012 and were very good indeed. They were physical, big, strong, and well-organized, so it will be another great challenge.

I'm not a believer in missing class, and last year I'm not sure we missed any at all due to our schedule. We are a top liberal arts college with the men's soccer program providing an integral part of the student-athlete's education and experience. These couple of days are right at the start of the semester, so it's great to see the lads with their books and laptops studying away. You have to admire their dedication - warms the cockles of the heart!
