ABOUT THE MATCH

After six days with no matches on its schedule, the Gustavus Adolphus men's soccer team heads back into Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference play on Saturday, Sept. 27 with a match against the Johnnies of Saint John's University set for 1:00 p.m. at the Gustie Soccer Field. Gustavus heads into Saturday's match with an overall record of 8-2-0 and an MIAC mark of 2-0-0, while Saint John's heads in with an overall record of 4-4-0 and an MIAC mark of 1-1-0.

LAST TIME OUT

The Gustavus men's soccer was last on the pitch Saturday, Sept. 20 when it traveled to Moorhead, Minnesota for its first MIAC road match of the year against Concordia College. In what was their fourth match over a helter skelter nine day time-span, the Gusties were able to come away with a 2-0 victory thanks to goals by Ryan Tollefsrud (Sr., Spearfish, S.D.) and Zach Brown (Sr., Eau Claire, Wis.). Tollefsrud scored the eventual game-winning goal in the 13th minute off a David Lilly corner kick and Brown added the insurance goal off a Nick Kieser (Sr., Plymouth, Minn.) assist in the 79th minute. Playing just 15 minutes from his hometown of West Fargo, N.D., goalkeeper Braden Schmid (Sr., West Fargo, N.D.) made two saves on the way to his first complete-match shutout of the season.

SERIES HISTORY

Saturday's match will be the 61st meeting between Gustavus and Saint John's in men's soccer. Gustavus has faced the Johnnies more times than any other team in the MIAC and hold the advantage in the all-time series with a record of 26-21-13. The well-rested Gusties seek redemption going into Saturday's contest after Saint John's came away with a 2-1 upset victory in the semifinal round of the MIAC Playoffs last season on Nov. 6 in St. Peter. After Ryan Tollefsrud scored in the 27th minute to give Gustavus a 1-0 lead, Saint John's Zane Heinselman responded with two unanswered goals in the 33rd and 40th minutes to allow the Johnnies the win. The Black and Gold took 2013's regular season matchup 4-0 on Sept. 28 in Collegeville.

NEWS AND NOTES

• Tolly Still Streaking - The scoring-streak of Ryan Tollefsrud continues as the senior is scoring goals like it's going out of style. Tollefsrud has recorded at least a point in each of the last six matches, which includes five goals (three in consecutive matches) and two assists for 12 points. Beginning with his double-overtime game-winner against UW-Oshkosh on Sept. 14, Tollefsrud's goals against Carleton and Concordia to kick off MIAC play were also game-winners. The Spearfish, S.D. native ranks second on the team and third in the MIAC in scoring with 15 points (6G, 3A). Zach Brown leads the team in scoring with 17 points (7G, 3A) and has scored in seven of the last eight matches. Both Ryan Tollefsrud and Zach Brown rank sixth in NCAA Division III with three game-winning goals.

• By the Numbers...

29 - The total number of goals scored by Gustavus this season. The Gusties rank fifth in the nation and lead the MIAC in goals scored. They rank second in the MIAC in goals per game at 2.9, as St. Olaf boasts the top scoring average in the league at 3.0 with 18 goals in six matches.

0.65 - The Gusties goals against average at home this season. Gustavus has shut out three of its last four opponents at home and has conceded just one goal over those four matches.

74 - The league-leading number of corner kicks Gustavus has taken this season. Saint John's ranks third with 48 corners. Of the team's 74 corners, 49 have come in the second half. Two of Gustavus's goals in last year's regular season meeting came off corner kicks.

5 - The number of goals senior striker Zach Brown has scored against Saint John's during his Gustavus career. Of those five goals, two have been game-winners.

MIDDLETON ON THE MATCH

We had a very good game against Carleton and we had a long trip on the day of the game against Concordia, so we are off to an excellent start. We dominated against Wartburg and were all-over Puget Sound for the first part of the game before tiredness set in, so 8-2-0 is a record the lads should be proud of especially after having played so many tough teams.

Saint John's should be a good test. The Johnnies pride themselves on being difficult to play against. The previous games, except last year's regular season game when we got away from them, have been messy, combative affairs. I expect nothing but the same on Saturday. They will harass us at every turn and try to stop us playing our style. They will be aggressive, physical, loud, and their bench will probably stand all game in an effort to ensure that the intensity level stays up. If I'd been playing for them, standing all game would have been a really tough sell, so kudos to their coach.

We'll try to play our style, keep possession and craft chances on goal from our own quality play. They will hit us early, try to force errors, and look to capitalize on those mistakes - all of which they do well. We are certainly looking forward to the game. It should be a fun and another solid test for the lads.
