ABOUT THE MATCH

The Gustavus Adolphus men's soccer team will travel to Edor Nelson Field in Minneapolis for a Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference match against the Auggies of Augsburg College set for 1:00 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 25. At 10-4-1 overall and 4-2-1 in the MIAC, the Gusties head into the weekend in a three-way tie for third place in the conference standings with 13 points. Augsburg is 5-8-2 overall and 3-3-1 in the MIAC and sits in a tie for sixth place with 10 points. Gustavus suffered a 1-0 loss at Macalester last Saturday in its most recent outing, while the Auggies fell 2-0 at Saint John's in their last time out.

LAST TIME OUT

The Gustavus men's soccer team suffered a 1-0 setback to Macalester in its last time out on Saturday, Oct. 18 in St. Paul. Although the Scots put just one shot on goal throughout the course of the afternoon, forward Austin Burrows' strike in the 30th minute proved to be all they needed to hold on for the one-goal victory. The Gusties outshot Macalester 14-8 and held a 14-3 corner kick advantage. Zeke Vainer was credited with the seven-save shutout, while Braden Schmid (Sr., West Fargo, N.D.) took the loss.

SERIES HISTORY

Saturday's match will be the 58th meeting between Gustavus and Augsburg in men's soccer. The Gusties hold the advantage in the all-time series with a mark of 37-15-5. In last season's regular season meeting between the two squads on Oct. 26 at the Gustie Soccer Field, Mike Middleton's club used a two-goal second half en route to a 2-0 win. Patrick Roth (So., Stillwater, Minn.) scored the eventual game-winner in the 72nd minute and Charlie Adams (Jr., Stillwater, Minn.) added the insurance goal six minutes later in the 78th. Brett Ylonen (Sr., Lake Elmo, Minn.) earned the complete-game shutout in a five save effort.

NEWS AND NOTES

• One-Goal Games - Of Gustavus's four losses this season, all have been by a one goal margin. Following Saturday's defeat at Macalester, the Gusties are now 2-4-0 in one-goal outcomes with losses coming to Wartburg (2-1), Puget Sound (3-2), and Saint John's (1-0 2OT).

• Corner Kick Advantage - Gustavus has held a corner kick advantage in 13 of its 15 matches. The Gusties are 8-4-0 in those 13 matches and currently lead the MIAC in corners with 124 for an average of 8.3 per match. Within conference play, Gustavus has tallied a league-best 70 corner kicks for an average of 10 per match.

• Shots, Shots, Shots - Saturday's game will feature two of the top shooting teams in the MIAC in Gustavus and Augsburg. Within conference play, Gustavus is averaging 16.3 shots per match (2nd/MIAC) while Augsburg is averaging 14.6 (3rd/MIAC). The bout will also feature two of the league's top shooters in Augsburg's Ben Henry and Gustavus's Zach Brown (Sr., Eau Claire, Wis.). Inside MIAC play, Henry leads the way with 33 shots and Brown ranks second with 26. Brown's .192 shot percentage ranks third amongst those with 20 or more shots to their credit.

MIDDLETON ON THE MATCH

We're coming down the business end of the season and it's clear that we are a team that can really turn it on when we are in the mood. Saturday will be a good test and another good game for fans to enjoy.

The opposition will work hard, be organized, and will be revved up for the game. We'll have to match that intensity and we'll need to be on our mettle. So, it's once more into the breach for the lads - for God, Harry and St. George!

We have just one more full week of the regular season left and hopefully we can squeeze every last drop of enjoyment out of it. Practices have been fun this week and all the lads are playing well. I hate to think of the season ending, which it has to do some time, but the hope is that we keep it going as long as possible. It's such a shame that we are not playing a regular season in the Fall and Spring, which would be great because this would be the team to do that with.

Everyone is fit, with the exception of long-term casualty Ryan Tollefsrud. Patrick Roth is looking fitter and sharper again after his relatively difficult groin strain, and Eli Bjerk has had a bit of an ankle problem but should be able to play through that. Zach Brown's slight quad strain is fully recovered and he is chomping at the bit to play full out. So, all is well in the camp.

We then have senior day on Tuesday with our last scheduled regular season home game against Bethel with a 3:30 pm kick-off. We are then back on the road next weekend against Hamline on Saturday and hopefully into the playoffs all being well.
