SETTING THE SCENE

The Gustavus Adolphus women's basketball team begins the final week of the regular season with a Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference challenge against the Scots of Macalester College on Wednesday, Feb. 18 at 7:00 p.m. on Gus Young Court. The Gusties sit alone in third place in the conference standings with an overall record of 16-7 and an MIAC mark of 10-6. Macalester sits at the bottom of the league with an overall record of 3-20 and an MIAC mark of 0-16.

LIVE COVERAGE

Live video and live stats for Wednesday night's games will be provided by Gustavus. New this season, Gustavus will provide a high definition video stream of all home games for viewing on your computer, tablet, or smart phone through GameCentral by Stretch Internet. Sports Information Director Ethan Armstrong will be at Gus Young Court for the live call of the action.

LAST TIME OUT

After a slow start and cold shooting led to a 72-59 loss at Concordia on Wednesday, Feb. 11, the Gustavus women's basketball team got the bounce-back win it needed in a run-way 75-47 victory over Saint Mary's last Saturday in St. Peter. In what Head Coach Laurie Kelly called the team's best overall performance of the season, the Gusties jumped out to a 42-22 halftime lead and didn't look back from there.

Gustavus never trailed, led by as many as 33 points in the second half, scored 22 points off turnovers, and shot over 50-percent from the field in both halves to finish the game 50.8-percent. Mikayla Miller (Fy., Goodhue, Minn.), Lindsey Johnson (Jr., Edina, Minn.), and Stephanie Klockmann (Fy., Brownton, Minn.) all reached double-digits. Miller led the way with 20 points after going 8-for-13 from the floor and 4-for-4 from three-point range. Johnson added 13 (6-11 FG), while Klockmann provided 10 (5-7 FG).

THE SERIES

Wednesday's game will be the 67th meeting between Gustavus and Macalester in women's basketball. The Gusties hold the advantage in the all-time series with a record of 54-12. Because of the MIAC's new scheduling system implemented this season, Wednesday's meeting between the two clubs will be the only one this season. In last season's series, Macalester pulled a 57-55 upset on Jan. 6 at Gustavus Young Court, but Gustavus bounced back with a 71-49 win later on Feb. 5 in St. Paul.

SCOUTING THE SCOTS

The Macalester women's basketball team heads into Wednesday looking to spoil Gustavus's hopes for a home MIAC playoff game. The Scots are most recently coming off an 89-80 home loss to St. Catherine on Saturday at the Leonard Center. Despite a 13-point first half deficit, Macalester battled back with a much improved second half to cut the lead to four (78-74) with 1:50 on the clock. St. Kate's responded to the late push with a four-point run to go up 82-74 with :55 seconds to go. The swing turned out to be the difference as the Scots came with only six points once during the final minute.

The Gusties will need to keep track of rookie Regan Fruh on Wednesday after she put together a career-game in the loss to St. Kate's. Fruh posted a double-double with a career-high 33 points on 14-of-18 shooting to go along with 10 rebounds. She heads into Wednesday shooting 48.5-percent from the floor with a team-best 11.8 points per game average.

Within league play, the Scots are averaging 51.2 points per game (12th) and are shooting 32.8-percent from the field (12th).

NEWS AND NOTES

Playoff Bound - Thanks to its victory over Saint Mary's last Saturday, the Gustavus women's basketball team has secured a place in the MIAC Playoffs. Since the initiation of the six-team MIAC Tournament in the 2000-01 season, the Gustavus women's basketball team has qualified for the conference playoffs every year. The Gusties will be making their 15th consecutive appearance in the MIAC Playoffs, holding a record of 8-14 all-time in the league's post-season tournament.

Turnover Battle - After turning the ball over 22 times in a three point loss to Hamline on Jan. 31 and averaging more than 18 giveaways per game through 19 games, Gustavus has demonstrated significant improvement in limiting turnovers and has won the turnover battle in each of the last four games. The Gusties are averaging just nine turnovers per game within that time-frame. Defensively, they have forced an average of 21.6 turnovers for an average margin of 12.6 per game. Within conference play, the Gusties rank fifth in turnovers per game at 16.1.

The Miller-Johnson Connection - Last Saturday's win over Saint Mary's was the 10th time this season that Mikayla Miller and Lindsey Johnson have both reached double-figures in the same game. When the pair reaches double-digits together, the Gusties boast a record of 7-3. In those ten games, Miller averages 19.2 points per game while Johnson averages 14.5.

By The Numbers...

2 - The number of times over Gustavus's last three games that the team has shot over 50-percent from the field. The Gusties shot 51-percent in their win over St. Olaf on Feb. 7 and 50.8-percent in their victory over Saint Mary's last Saturday. Gustavus is now 5-1 when shooting over 50-percent from the field this season.

17.8 - First-year Stephanie Klockmann's average minutes the last five games - an increase of more than five minutes as compared to her current season average of 12.6. In her second start of the season on Saturday against Saint Mary's, Klockmann scored 10 points (5-7 FG) and brought down a team-best six rebounds. The Browntown product has scored 11 and 10 points, respectively, the last two games and is shooting 72.7-percent from the field over the past five games.

Head Coach: Laurie Kelly (Third Season)

Assistant Coaches: Dan Wolfe, Angie Potts, Nate Otto

HEAD COACH LAURIE KELLY

Third Season
43-31 at Gustavus
266-220 Overall
Office: 507-933-6145
Email: lkelly@gustavus.edu

Laurie Kelly is in her third season as the head coach of the Gustavus women's basketball team. Kelly, a 1993 graduate of the University of St. Thomas with a degree in speech communications, came to Gustavus from Northern Arizona University in Flagstaff, where she directed the Division I Lumberjacks for nine seasons.

Thanks to a late surge during which the 2013-14 Gustavus women's basketball team won seven of eight games from late-January to mid-February, the Gusties were able finish sixth in the conference standings with a record of 11-11 and earn a trip to the MIAC Playoffs for an MIAC-best 14th consecutive season. Gustavus finished the year with a record of 14-12 overall after falling on the road to No. 3-seeded St. Thomas 66-51 in the quarterfinals of the MIAC Playoffs.

Senior guard Julia Dysthe (White Bear Lake, Minn.) and sophomore post Karina Schroeder (Lake Crystal, Minn.) were both honored as members of the All-Conference Team following the season. Dysthe, a first time all-conference performer, scored a career-high 382 points (13.7 ppg) and shot 42.1-percent from the field. Schroeder, a member of the MIAC All-Rookie Team last season, established herself as one of the top post players in the league after averaging 14.2 points per game, shooting 53.3-percent from the field, and bringing down an average of 8.9 rebounds per game. She led the team in all three categories and finished with the second-best field goal shooting percentage in the league at 51.6-percent against league opponents.

A Rochester, Minnesota, native, Kelly made a quick ascent through the Division II and I coaching ranks after record setting Division III playing career at the University of St. Thomas in the early '90s. In the past nine years at Northern Arizona, she has compiled the most wins in the program's history (117), while also directing the team to its first-ever Big Sky Conference tournament title and NCAA tournament bid in the 2005-06 season. During Kelly's tenure, the Lumberjacks advanced to the Big Sky tournament six times with two appearances in the championship game (2006, 2007), and her teams have registered two of the three 20-win seasons in the program's history.

In addition to quality on the floor, her squads have also been strong in the classroom, with four players earning CoSIDA Academic All-District honors including one Academic All-American. The Lumberjacks were recognized in the Women's Basketball Coaches Association Top 25 Academic Honor Roll six times, with two Top Ten national rankings.

Following the 2012-13 season, the Gustavus women's basketball team achieved a significant milestone when the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) announced its Academic Top 25 Team Honor Roll following the year. Making their 15th appearance on the NCAA Division III honor roll, the Gusties were recognized as the team with the top cumulative grade point average in country at a 3.600 – a first in the program's history.

Prior to her position at Northern Arizona, Kelly coached at Binghamton University in New York and built the Bearcats into one of the top Division II programs in the country before helping the institution transition to a Division I program in 2001-02. In that first year of Division I competition, Kelly directed the team to a 19-9 record and a second-place finish in the America East Conference. During her five years at Binghamton, Kelly compiled a record of 94-22, including a mark of 75-13 in the program's final three years at the Division II level, and her squads won New England Collegiate Conference (NECC) titles in 1999 and 2000 and Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference (ECAC) titles in 2000 and 2001. She was named ECAC Coach of the Year in 2000 and New York State Coach of the Year in 2002. Kelly started her collegiate coaching career as the graduate assistant coach at Minnesota State University, Mankato from 1996 to 1998. While she was at Minnesota State, Mankato she earned a master's degree in physical education with an emphasis in sports administration.

Before her success in the coaching ranks, Laurie Trow Kelly was a standout player at the University of St. Thomas from 1989 to 1993 and is recognized by many as one of the greatest players in NCAA Division III history. A gifted athlete, the 6-1 Kelly scored 2,607 points and pulled down 1,204 rebounds in four years, earning Kodak All-America honors three consecutive seasons. In her senior season (1992-93), Kelly was voted National Player of the Year by the Women's Basketball Coaches Association after averaging more than 26 points per game. She set 22 conference and 24 school records, was conference MVP three times and was also named Midwest Sports Channel NCAA Division III Women's Athlete of the Year. In January of 2006, Kelly was one of five players selected to the NCAA Division III 25th Anniversary Team.

Laurie Kelly is the ninth head coach in the history of the Gustavus women's basketball program. Heading into the 2014-15 season, the Gusties have compiled an all-time record of 632-434 (.593), winning two Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference championships and making five NCAA tournament appearances.

In addition to her coaching duties, Kelly serves as the coordinator of the Gustavus Health Promotion program (GHP). The Gustavus Health Promotion program offers employees at Gustavus a variety of educational opportunities, assessment tools, and physical activity experiences so that they can achieve and maintain a healthy lifestyle.

Kelly lives in St. Peter with and her husband, Matt, and their two daughters, Morgan and Madison .
