About the Gusties: After missing the MIAC postseason for the first time in program history a season ago, the Gusties bounced back to win their 14th MIAC title this season and earn an at-large bid in the NCAA Tournament. A most recent loss in the MIAC Playoff Semifinals to the University of St. Thomas moved the Gusties record to 17-6-3 overall.

The Black and Gold are led by Kaitlyn Klein and Erica Power, each leading the team with 18 points on the season. Klein ranks sixth in the country and first in the MIAC with six game-winning goals on the season. The Gusties are backstopped by one of the nation's top goaltenders in Amanda DiNella. DiNella ranks tied for the most shutouts in the nation with eight, and is one away from tying the Gustavus record with nine in a season. She also ranks second in the nation with a 1.03 goals against average.

About the Falcons: The University of Wisconsin-River Falls is making its ninth consecutive bid to the NCAA Tournament as the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Champions. The Falcons boast a 26-2 overall record this season, both losses coming against WIAC foe UW-Eau Claire. In nine all-time NCAA Tournament appearances, UW-River Falls has went 7-11 while making four semifinal appearances along with two third place crowns and a runner-up finish coming last season. A year ago, the Falcons defeated St. Thomas and Elmira before falling to Plattsburgh State 5-1 in the championship game.

Senior forward Dani Sibley leads the Falcons as the nation's leading scorer with 63 points (27g-36a) on the season while also leading the nation with four shorthanded goals. Junior forward Carly Moran ranks fifth among the national scoring leaders with 51 points (22g-29a). Junior goaltender Angie Hall ranks near or at the top in several national categories. Hall's eight shutouts is tied for the best in the nation, while her 1.07 goals against average and .929 winning percentage both as fourth-best.

As a team, the Falcons rank among the best in the country statistically. They own the second-best winning percentage (.929), rank second with a 1.14 scoring defense and a 31.0 power play percentage, and are tied for fourth with an average of 4.36 goals a game. They also lead the nation with nine shorthanded goals.

400 Milestone: On December 3rd at the College of Saint Benedict, a 3-2 win marked the 400th all-time victory in Gustavus women's hockey program history. The Gusties are the fastest team in the MIAC to reach the 400 mark.
