2017-18 GUSTAVUS WOMEN'S BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

SETTING THE SCENE

The Gustavus women's basketball team travels to Macalester College tonight for a 7 p.m. tipoff. The Gusties are looking for their fourth-straight victory as they enter the contest 17-4 overall and 11-3 in the MIAC. The Scots are 8-13 overall and 4-10 in the league.

THE SERIES

Tonight's game marks the 74th meeting between Gustavus and Macalester with the Gusties holding a 61-12 advantage in the all-time series. The Gusties have won the last six meetings with the Scots' last victory on Jan. 6, 2014. In their last meeting on Jan. 21 last year, the Gusties broke triple digits with a 103-70 win at Gus Young Court. The Gusties set a season-high with 103 points and tied a season-high with 38 field goals made, going 38-for-67 from the field (56.7%). From three-point range, Gustavus shot a season-best 71.4 percent mark, going 10-for-14 from beyond the arc.

Four Gusties tallied double-digit points with Miranda Rice leading the way with 26 points. Along with Rice, Mikayla Miller added 17, Hannah Howard totaled 16, and Justine Lee compiled 14 as she was a perfect 6-6 from the field and 2-2 from three-point range. Down low, Gustavus outplayed Macalester as it outscored the Scots in points in the paint by a mark of 54-28. The Gusties also capitalized on Macalester mistakes, outscoring the Scots in points off turnovers, 36-11.

ABOUT THE SCOTS

After losing back-to-back games, Macalester is coming off a 67-59 win at Carleton on Saturday. Regan Fruh led the Scots with 24 points and 12 rebounds. Fruh has led the Scots all season long, averaging 14.7 points and 8.0 rebounds per game. As a team, the Scots average 58.3 points per game and shoot 36.4 percent from the field. They hold opponents to 38.3 percent shooting, which ranks third in the MIAC. They're also the second best blocking team in the conference with 5.2 blocks per game.

LAST TIME OUT

The Gusties continued their offensive prowess Saturday at Hamline, winning in convincing fashion 89-47 to clinch a spot in the MIAC playoffs. The Gusties shot 55 percent from beyond the three-point line and controlled the glass, out-rebounding the Pipers 44-20.

Gustavus made the first five three-point shots it took in the first quarter to establish a 29-12 lead after 10 minutes. Hamline pushed back to get the score to a 10-point difference midway through the second quarter, but the Gusties went on a 13-2 run to close out the half and led 45-24 at the break. The visitors continued to add to their lead in the second half as 15 players saw time on the court.

Mikayla Miller led all scorers with 14 points on 4-of-9 shooting from the floor, including 4-of-5 from the free throw line. Justine Lee and Kendall Thompson also reached double figures with 13 and 11 points, respectively. Miranda Rice led the team on the glass with eight rebounds. As a team, the Gusties shot 49.2 percent from the floor and sunk 11 three-pointers, marking the third-straight game with at least 10 treys made. Gustavus forced 23 turnovers, which generated 28 points.

HEAD COACH LAURIE KELLY

Laurie Kelly is in her sixth season as the head coach of the Gustavus women's basketball team in 2017-18. Kelly, a 1993 graduate of the University of St. Thomas with a degree in speech communications, came to Gustavus from Northern Arizona University in Flagstaff, where she directed the Division I Lumberjacks for nine seasons.

In 2016-17, Kelly led Gustavus to one of the best seasons in program history, appearing in the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2008. The Gusties tied a program record 25 wins and a .960 win percentage, finishing 25-3 overall. Following Kelly's second season at Gustavus in 2012-13, the Gusties achieved a significant milestone when the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) announced its Academic Top 25 Team Honor Roll following the year. Making their 15th appearance on the NCAA Division III honor roll, the Gusties were recognized as the team with the top cumulative grade point average in country at a 3.600 – a first in the program's history.

A Rochester, Minnesota native, Kelly made a quick ascent through the Division II and I coaching ranks after a record setting Division III playing career at the University of St. Thomas in the early '90s. In nine years at Northern Arizona, she compiled the most wins in the program's history (117), while also directing the team to its first-ever Big Sky Conference tournament title and NCAA tournament bid in the 2005-06 season. During Kelly's tenure, the Lumberjacks advanced to the Big Sky tournament six times with two appearances in the championship game (2006, 2007), and her teams registered two of the three 20-win seasons in the program's history.

In addition to quality on the floor, her squads were also strong in the classroom, with four players earning CoSIDA Academic All-District honors including one Academic All-American. The Lumberjacks were recognized in the Women's Basketball Coaches Association Top 25 Academic Honor Roll six times, with two Top Ten national rankings.

Prior to her position at Northern Arizona, Kelly coached at Binghamton University in New York and built the Bearcats into one of the top Division II programs in the country before helping the institution transition to a Division I program in 2001-02. In that first year of Division I competition, Kelly directed the team to a 19-9 record and a second-place finish in the America East Conference. During her five years at Binghamton, Kelly compiled a record of 94-22, including a mark of 75-13 in the program's final three years at the Division II level, and her squads won New England Collegiate Conference (NECC) titles in 1999 and 2000 and Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference (ECAC) titles in 2000 and 2001. She was named ECAC Coach of the Year in 2000 and New York State Coach of the Year in 2002. Kelly started her collegiate coaching career as the graduate assistant coach at Minnesota State University, Mankato from 1996 to 1998. While she was at Minnesota State, Mankato she earned a master's degree in physical education with an emphasis in sports administration.

Before her success in the coaching ranks, Laurie Trow Kelly was a standout player at the University of St. Thomas from 1989 to 1993 and is recognized by many as one of the greatest players in NCAA Division III history. A gifted athlete, the 6-1 Kelly scored 2,607 points and pulled down 1,204 rebounds in four years, earning Kodak All-America honors three consecutive seasons. In her senior season (1992-93), Kelly was voted National Player of the Year by the Women's Basketball Coaches Association after averaging more than 26 points per game. She set 22 conference and 24 school records, was conference MVP three times and was also named Midwest Sports Channel NCAA Division III Women's Athlete of the Year. In January of 2006, Kelly was one of five players selected to the NCAA Division III 25th Anniversary Team.

Laurie Kelly is the ninth head coach in the history of the Gustavus women's basketball program. In addition to her coaching duties, Kelly serves as the coordinator of the Gustavus Health Promotion program (GHP). The Gustavus Health Promotion program offers employees at Gustavus a variety of educational opportunities, assessment tools, and physical activity experiences so that they can achieve and maintain a healthy lifestyle.

Kelly lives in St. Peter with and her husband, Matt, and their two daughters, Morgan and Madison.
