2019-20 GUSTAVUS WOMEN'S BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

SETTING THE SCENE

The No. 25 Gustavus women's basketball team will travel to St. Joseph Wednesday to take on Saint Benedict for a 7 p.m. contest. The Gusties enter 6-1 overall and 3-0 in the MIAC while the Bennies are 6-1 overall and 2-1 in the conference.

LAST TIME OUT

The Gustavus women's basketball team snapped St. Thomas's 77-game MIAC win streak on Saturday, taking down the No. 6 ranked Tommies 62-57. With the victory the Gusties move to 6-1 overall and 3-0 in the MIAC, while the Tommies fall to 6-1 overall and 3-1 in the conference.

"It's just a great win," said Head Coach Laurie Kelly. "From the defensive side we started slow and I think part of that is just the heaviness of playing at St. Thomas and knowing their track record. Then we had three first-years on the floor and to them it was just another game and that helped turn things around. The second quarter was huge, as we dominated for ten minutes and were able to go into the locker room with momentum. We knew the second half was going to be a grind and that being gritty and playing with heart was going to be key. We came out and were able to make the plays we needed and got the stops we needed to hold on."

St. Thomas got off to a good start, jumping up 17-6 just over eight minutes into the contest. The Gusties would close out the quarter with threes from Anna Sanders (Fy., Vadnais Heights) and Maddy Rice (Fy., Forest Lake) while the Tommies tacked on one more basket and they led 19-12 after one quarter.

The second quarter was all Gusties though, as the visitors outscored the home team 19-6. After the two teams each tallied a basket early in the quarter, Gustavus scored 11 straight points, holding the Tommies scoreless for over five minutes to take a 25-21 lead. With the Gusties lead at 27-25 with 3:38 to play, the Black and Gold finished the quarter blanking the Tommies and put up four more points to take a 31-25 lead into the break.

In the third quarter St. Thomas would battle back into it, evening things up at 37 apiece with 5:25 to play in the frame, but Caitlin Rorman (Fy., Blue Earth) and Ava Gonsorowski (Jr., Esko) would get back-to-back layups to push Gustavus back up four. The home team would respond late in the quarter, scoring seven of the last 11 points of the quarter to trim the Gustie lead to 45-44 after three quarters.

Gabby Bowlin (Jr., Winona) sank a three to get things going in the final frame and re-extend the Gustie lead to four. The Tommies would respond on the following possession but a Rorman layup followed by a pair of free throws from Paige Richert (Jr., Comfrey) would push the Gustie lead to six. St. Thomas would respond with a six point run, evening things at 52 with 5:19 to play.

Ava Gonsorowski found her way to the free throw line on two of the next three possessions, knocking down all four attempts and canceling out a pair of St. Thomas free throws to give Gustavus to a two-point lead with 3:44 to play. Rorman added a huge basket down low to push Gustavus up four with under three minutes remaining, and Paige Richert split a pair of free throws on the following possession to put Gustavus up 59-54 with 2:07 left. St. Thomas then enlisted a full court press, notching two straight turnovers, and getting a free throw and layup to cut the lead back to two with 57 seconds to play. Rorman missed an inside shot on the following possession but got her own rebound and was fouled on the put-back, sinking one of two free throws. With 15 seconds to play the Tommies missed a three-pointer, with Bowlin securing the rebound and being fouled to all but put the game away. Bowlin's first attempt hit every part of the rim as it rattled in, however her second attempt missed. The Tommies missed another shot on their ensuing possession, Gonsorowski grabbed the rebound, and made one more free throw to give the Gusties the 62-57 win.

Rorman led the Gusties in the contest with 20 points on 9-of-13 shooting to go along with seven rebounds. Richert also played well in the post scoring 12 points, while Gonsorowski added 10 on the perimeter. First-years Sanders and Rice scored eight and six points, respectively, each knocking down a pair of three pointers, while Bowlin also finished with six points.

The win also ends St. Thomas's 29-game home court win streak and gives the Black and Gold its first triumph over St. Thomas since Feb. 17, 2010.

"It's exciting but in the locker room after the game I told them I don't want this to be the highlight of our season," said Kelly. "I want them to use it as a motivator going forward so we can accomplish more big things."

SCOUTING THE GUSTIES

Gustavus is coming off a statement win on Saturday, defeating then No. 6 St. Thomas 62-57. After seven contests the Gusties average 73.0 points per game which ranks third in the MIAC, while their 50.6 points allowed ranks first. The stout defense has held Gustie opponents to the lowest field goal percentage (34.0) and three-point percentage (22.6) of any MIAC team. Reigning MIAC Player of the Week Caitlin Rorman leads the charge, averaging a team-high 16.1 points and 7.6 rebounds, while her 63.9 percent field goal percentage is the fourth best in the MIAC. Ava Gonsorowski has also been strong, scoring 13.1 points to go along with a team-best 3.4 assists per game.

SCOUTING THE BENNIES

Saint Benedict comes into the contest most recenlty falling to Carleton Monday 64-63. Through seven contests the Bennies average 71.4 points per game while allowing 57.0. Megan Thompson and Alex Johnson are the Bennies top scorers thus far, averaging 13.5 and 12.0 points per game, respectively. Thompson is the team leader in assists per game with 3.3, while Johnson averages a MIAC-bests 10.1 rebounds.

HEAD COACH LAURIE KELLY

Laurie Kelly is in her eighth season as the head coach of the Gustavus women's basketball team in 2019-20. Kelly, a 1993 graduate of the University of St. Thomas with a degree in speech communications, came to Gustavus from Northern Arizona University in Flagstaff, where she directed the Division I Lumberjacks for nine seasons.

In 2017-18, Kelly led Gustavus to one of the best seasons in program history, reaching the round of 16 in the NCAA tournament for the first time. The Gusties went 14-4 in the MIAC for third place, reached the conference playoff championship game for the second consecutive season, and finished with a 24-7 overall record. Following Kelly's second season at Gustavus in 2012-13, the Gusties achieved a significant milestone when the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) announced its Academic Top 25 Team Honor Roll following the year. Making their 15th appearance on the NCAA Division III honor roll, the Gusties were recognized as the team with the top cumulative grade point average in the country at a 3.600 – a first in the program's history.

A Rochester, Minnesota native, Kelly made a quick ascent through the Division II and I coaching ranks after a record setting Division III playing career at the University of St. Thomas in the early '90s. In nine years at Northern Arizona, she compiled the most wins in the program's history (117), while also directing the team to its first-ever Big Sky Conference tournament title and NCAA tournament bid in the 2005-06 season. During Kelly's tenure, the Lumberjacks advanced to the Big Sky tournament six times with two appearances in the championship game (2006, 2007), and her teams registered two of the three 20-win seasons in the program's history.

In addition to quality on the floor, her squads were also strong in the classroom, with four players earning CoSIDA Academic All-District honors including one Academic All-American. The Lumberjacks were recognized in the Women's Basketball Coaches Association Top 25 Academic Honor Roll six times, with two Top Ten national rankings.

Prior to her position at Northern Arizona, Kelly coached at Binghamton University in New York and built the Bearcats into one of the top Division II programs in the country before helping the institution transition to a Division I program in 2001-02. In that first year of Division I competition, Kelly directed the team to a 19-9 record and a second-place finish in the America East Conference. During her five years at Binghamton, Kelly compiled a record of 94-22, including a mark of 75-13 in the program's final three years at the Division II level, and her squads won New England Collegiate Conference (NECC) titles in 1999 and 2000 and Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference (ECAC) titles in 2000 and 2001. She was named ECAC Coach of the Year in 2002 and New York State Coach of the Year in 2002. Kelly started her collegiate coaching career as the graduate assistant coach at Minnesota State University, Mankato from 1996 to 1998. While she was at Minnesota State, Mankato she earned a master's degree in physical education with an emphasis in sports administration.

Before her success in the coaching ranks, Laurie Trow Kelly was a standout player at the University of St. Thomas from 1989 to 1993 and is recognized by many as one of the greatest players in NCAA Division III history. A gifted athlete, the 6-1 Kelly scored 2,607 points and pulled down 1,204 rebounds in four years, earning Kodak All-America honors three consecutive seasons. In her senior season (1992–93), Kelly was voted National Player of the Year by the Women's Basketball Coaches Association after averaging more than 26 points per game. She set 22 conference and 24 school records, was conference MVP three times and was also named Midwest Sports Channel NCAA Division III Women's Athlete of the Year. In January of 2006, Kelly was one of five players selected to the NCAA Division III 25th Anniversary Team.

Laurie Kelly is the ninth head coach in the history of the Gustavus women's basketball program. In addition to her coaching duties, Kelly serves as the coordinator of the Gustavus Health Promotion program (GHP). The Gustavus Health Promotion program offers employees at Gustavus a variety of educational opportunities, assessment tools, and physical activity experiences so that they can achieve and maintain a healthy lifestyle.

Kelly lives in St. Peter with and her husband, Matt, and their two daughters, Morgan and Madison.
