2019-20 GUSTAVUS WOMEN'S BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

SETTING THE SCENE

After five straight road contests and three weeks away from Gus Young Court, the No. 25 Gustavus women's basketball team will return home Saturday as they host Concordia for a 3 p.m. contest. The Gusties enter 7-1 overall and 4-0 in the MIAC while the Cobbers are 4-5 overall and 2-2 in the league.

LAST TIME OUT

The No. 25 Gustavus women's basketball team traveled to St. Joseph Wednesday and defeated Saint Benedict 67-57. With the win, the Gusties improve to 7-1 overall and 4-0 in the MIAC while the Bennies fall to 6-2 and 2-2 in the conference.

"It was a great road win for us," said Head Coach Laurie Kelly. "It was definitely a game of runs and I thought Paige was a huge factor for us in the first half. We played well defensively before half but had a lot of turnovers, and I felt like we adjusted in the second half. Marisa had a great game and Alison off the bench was huge, and to have four players in double figures was key to our win. We had a lot of turnovers but the constant for us was our defense throughout the game, as our guards and posts were able to hold their top two scorers down."

The game got off to a slow start, with neither team gaining any steam early, combing for just 14 first quarter points as the Gusties lead 8-6 after one quarter.

In the second quarter, the Gustavus offense picked up, but the Bennies matched it and then some. After the Gusties slowly built their lead to 18-13 with 4:33 remaining in the half, Saint Ben's offense went into full swing, outscoring Gustavus 12-4 in the last four to take a 25-22 lead into the half.

The Gusties opened the second half with an 15-2 run, getting seven points from Caitlin Rorman (Fy., Blue Earth) and six from Anna Sanders (Fy., Vadnais Heights) to take a 37-27 lead. Saint Ben's would answer, scoring 14 of the next 17 points to retake the lead at 41-40, but an Alison Hinck (Jr., Vadnais Heights) three-pointer would give the Gusties a lead they wouldn't relinquish

After carrying a 47-42 lead into the fourth quarter, Marisa Gustafson (Jr., Mahtomedi) would score 11 of the first 13 Gustavus points, pushing the Black and Gold to a 60-51 lead following her second three pointer of the frame. The Bennies would respond with a bucket to pull it within seven, but Gustavus would close out the game late, making free throws and limiting turnovers to take the 67-57 victory.

Gustafson led all scorers with 19 points and five rebounds while Paige Richert (Jr., Comfrey) added 14 points and game-high nine boards. Rorman and Hinck each also finished in double figures with 11 and 10 points, respectively. Gustavus shot 47.3 percent in the contest while they kept up their stout defensive ways, limiting the Bennies to just 32.7 percent from the field.

"This was a long stretch on the road for us and we're excited to get back home and head into break with a home game Saturday," said Kelly.

SCOUTING THE GUSTIES

Gustavus stayed unbeaten in December Wednesday when they took down Saint Benedict 67-57. Through eight games the Gusties have made their mark on both ends of the floor, ranking third in the MIAC in points per game with 72.3, while their points allowed mark of 51.4 ranks second. Caitlin Rorman leads the Black and Gold with 15.5 points per game, while Ava Gonsorowski and Paige Richert also average double figures with 12.4 and 10.1 points, respectively. Rorman currently ranks fifth in the conference in points per game, as well as rebounds with 7.4, while her 63.0 percent shooting is fourth. Gonsorowski has been the Gusties primary point guard this year, dishing out 3.5 assists for the fourth highest mark in the league.

SCOUTING THE COBBERS

Concordia comes into the contest most recently following a 64-61 win over Carleton Wednesday. Through nine games the Cobbers average 65.7 points per contest, while allowing 70.1. As a team Concordia has been the second best MIAC team on the boards this season, averaging 38.2 rebounds per contest. They have been led offensively by Mary Sem, who is averaging 14.6 points to go along with 4.4 rebounds. Autumn Thompson and Emily Beseman have also been effective, averaging 12.3 and 12.1 points per game, respectively, with Beseman coming off a MIAC record-setting performance Wednesday when she knocked down 9-of-11 three point attempts.

HEAD COACH LAURIE KELLY

Laurie Kelly is in her eighth season as the head coach of the Gustavus women's basketball team in 2019-20. Kelly, a 1993 graduate of the University of St. Thomas with a degree in speech communications, came to Gustavus from Northern Arizona University in Flagstaff, where she directed the Division I Lumberjacks for nine seasons.

In 2017-18, Kelly led Gustavus to one of the best seasons in program history, reaching the round of 16 in the NCAA tournament for the first time. The Gusties went 14-4 in the MIAC for third place, reached the conference playoff championship game for the second consecutive season, and finished with a 24-7 overall record. Following Kelly's second season at Gustavus in 2012-13, the Gusties achieved a significant milestone when the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) announced its Academic Top 25 Team Honor Roll following the year. Making their 15th appearance on the NCAA Division III honor roll, the Gusties were recognized as the team with the top cumulative grade point average in the country at a 3.600 – a first in the program's history.

A Rochester, Minnesota native, Kelly made a quick ascent through the Division II and I coaching ranks after a record setting Division III playing career at the University of St. Thomas in the early '90s. In nine years at Northern Arizona, she compiled the most wins in the program's history (117), while also directing the team to its first-ever Big Sky Conference tournament title and NCAA tournament bid in the 2005-06 season. During Kelly's tenure, the Lumberjacks advanced to the Big Sky tournament six times with two appearances in the championship game (2006, 2007), and her teams registered two of the three 20-win seasons in the program's history.

In addition to quality on the floor, her squads were also strong in the classroom, with four players earning CoSIDA Academic All-District honors including one Academic All-American. The Lumberjacks were recognized in the Women's Basketball Coaches Association Top 25 Academic Honor Roll six times, with two Top Ten national rankings.

Prior to her position at Northern Arizona, Kelly coached at Binghamton University in New York and built the Bearcats into one of the top Division II programs in the country before helping the institution transition to a Division I program in 2001-02. In that first year of Division I competition, Kelly directed the team to a 19-9 record and a second-place finish in the America East Conference. During her five years at Binghamton, Kelly compiled a record of 94-22, including a mark of 75-13 in the program's final three years at the Division II level, and her squads won New England Collegiate Conference (NECC) titles in 1999 and 2000 and Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference (ECAC) titles in 2000 and 2001. She was named ECAC Coach of the Year in 2000 and New York State Coach of the Year in 2002. Kelly started her collegiate coaching career as the graduate assistant coach at Minnesota State University, Mankato from 1996 to 1998. While she was at Minnesota State, Mankato she earned a master's degree in physical education with an emphasis in sports administration.

Before her success in the coaching ranks, Laurie Trow Kelly was a standout player at the University of St. Thomas from 1989 to 1993 and is recognized by many as one of the greatest players in NCAA Division III history. A gifted athlete, the 6-I Kelly scored 2,607 points and pulled down 1,204 rebounds in four years, earning Kodak All-America honors three consecutive seasons. In her senior season (1992–93), Kelly was voted National Player of the Year by the Women's Basketball Coaches Association after averaging more than 26 points per game. She set 22 conference and 24 school records, was conference MVP three times and was also named Midwest Sports Channel NCAA Division III Women's Athlete of the Year. In January of 2006, Kelly was one of five players selected to the NCAA Division III 25th Anniversary Team.

Laurie Kelly is the ninth head coach in the history of the Gustavus women's basketball program. In addition to her coaching duties, Kelly serves as the coordinator of the Gustavus Health Promotion program (GHP). The Gustavus Health Promotion program offers employees at Gustavus a variety of educational opportunities, assessment tools, and physical activity experiences so that they can achieve and maintain a healthy lifestyle.

Kelly lives in St. Peter with and her husband, Matt, and their two daughters, Morgan and Madison.
