2019-20 GUSTAVUS WOMEN'S BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

SETTING THE SCENE

The Gustavus women's basketball team will play host to No. 11 Bethel Saturday as they celebrate Senior Day. The Gusties enter the contest 17-5 overall and 13-4 in the MIAC, while the Royals are 21-1 overall and 16-1 in the conference.

LAST TIME OUT

The Gustavus women's basketball team traveled to St. Catherine Wednesday night and held off a late St. Kate's comeback for a 67-65 victory. With the win the Gusties move to 17-5 overall and 13-4 in the MIAC, while the Wildcats fall to 11-11 overall and 8-9 in the league.

"We played really good in the first half and shot it super well," said Head Coach Laurie Kelly. "But in the second half we didn't play great and they took it to us. Ava hit a big shot late and Caitlin played really well to help us hang on. This was a game where we can look at a lot of things and see what we need to work on in our final stretch of games. We wanted to be able to put ourselves in a situation where we could clinch a home playoff game and we were able to do that tonight and it's something we're excited about."

Gustavus was able to jump out to a 19-7 lead in the first 7:13 of play thanks to eight points from Caitlin Rorman (Fy., Blue Earth) and six points from Anna Sanders (Fy., Vadnais Heights). St. Kate's would hang tough late and go on a 4-0 run the last 2:47 of the quarter to cut the lead to single digits heading into the second.

Sanders would continue her stellar shooting in the second quarter by knocking down a pair of triples and a layup early, while Ava Gonsorowski (Jr., Esko) added a pair of layups and a three-pointer as the duo outscored the Wildcats 15-8 in the first six minutes of the second frame to take a 34-19 lead. The Wildcats would battle and cut the Gustie lead to 11 with time winding down but a Sanders basket late would give her 16 first half points and put Gustavus up 40-27 after one half.

St. Catherine would slowly start to push their way back into the contest in the third quarter. The Wildcats would cut the lead to eight points, but Gustavus would continue to answer the call, pushing its lead to 54-43 heading to the final quarter.

After the Black and Gold nabbed the first basket of the fourth to go up 13, St. Kate's would go on its run to make it a game. They would go on a 18-5 run, going 7-for-10 from the 8:21 to the 3:29 mark to even the game at 61. With the game even, Rorman would take over the next two possessions scoring back-to-back buckets to push Gustavus ahead by four. After a Wildcat free throw with a minute and a half left to cut the Gustie lead to one possession, Gonsorowski would knock down a jumper push the score to 67-62. St. Catherine made a three with 35 seconds remaining, but Gustavus would get a shot late in the shot clock on their ensuing possession and St. Kate's couldn't knock down the game-tying shot at the buzzer.

Roman led the Gusties with 19 points, while Sanders added 16 off the bench to go along a team-best six rebounds. Gonsorowski was the lone other Gustavus player scoring in double figures as she contributed 11.

SCOUTING THE GUSTIES

Gustavus is most recently coming off a 67-65 win over St. Catherine on Wednesday. Caitlin Rorman posted her 11th straight game in double figures in the win, as she is averaging a team-best 16.5 points and 6.0 rebounds per game. Anna Sanders also kept her scoring outburst going, as the first-year has averaged 16.3 points over the past three games, shooting 12-of-17 from beyond the arc in the same stretch. Through 22 contests this season, the Gusties average 73.2 points per game on 45.5 percent shooting, marks that rank third and second in the MIAC, respectively. Defensively, the Black and Gold have defended the arc better than any other team in the league, limiting opponents to a 27.6 percent clip from long range.

SCOUTING THE WILDCATS

Bethel comes into the contest most recently winning a top-25 matchup with St. Thomas Wednesday. The Royals boast the top offense in the league in most statistical categories, leading the MIAC in points (75.2), field goal percentage (36.5), three point percentage (36.5), and assists (16.4). The only flaw for the Bethel offense has been turnovers, with Bethel turning the ball over 19.0 times a game, the fourth most in the conference. Defensively, Bethel makes up for the turnovers by leading the league in steals by a wide margin with 18.9. The Royals are led by Taite Anderson who leads the league in scoring with 20.7 points per contest, while also shooting the highest percentage of any conference player at 64.5 percent. Makenna Pearson and Elizabeth Schwartz both average 9.9 points per contests for the Royals while Haylee Barker averages 9.7 and a league-best 4.0 steals and 4.0 assists.

HEAD COACH LAURIE KELLY

Laurie Kelly is in her eighth season as the head coach of the Gustavus women's basketball team in 2019-20. Kelly, a 1993 graduate of the University of St. Thomas with a degree in speech communications, came to Gustavus from Northern Arizona University in Flagstaff, where she directed the Division I Lumberjacks for nine seasons.

In 2017-18, Kelly led Gustavus to one of the best seasons in program history, reaching the round of 16 in the NCAA tournament for the first time. The Gusties went 14-4 in the MIAC for third place, reached the conference playoff championship game for the second consecutive season, and finished with a 24-7 overall record. Following Kelly's second season at Gustavus in 2012-13, the Gusties achieved a significant milestone when the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) announced its Academic Top 25 Team Honor Roll following the year. Making their 15th appearance on the NCAA Division III honor roll, the Gusties were recognized as the team with the top cumulative grade point average in the country at a 3.600 – a first in the program's history.

A Rochester, Minnesota native, Kelly made a quick ascent through the Division II and I coaching ranks after a record setting Division III playing career at the University of St. Thomas in the early '90s. In nine years at Northern Arizona, she compiled the most wins in the program's history (117), while also directing the team to its first-ever Big Sky Conference tournament title and NCAA tournament bid in the 2005-06 season. During Kelly's tenure, the Lumberjacks advanced to the Big Sky tournament six times with two appearances in the championship game (2006, 2007), and her teams registered two of the three 20-win seasons in the program's history.

In addition to quality on the floor, her squads were also strong in the classroom, with four players earning CoSIDA Academic All-District honors including one Academic All-American. The Lumberjacks were recognized in the Women's Basketball Coaches Association Top 25 Academic Honor Roll six times, with two Top Ten national rankings.

Prior to her position at Northern Arizona, Kelly coached at Binghamton University in New York and built the Bearcats into one of the top Division II programs in the country before helping the institution transition to a Division I program in 2001-02. In that first year of Division I competition, Kelly directed the team to a 19-9 record and a second-place finish in the America East Conference. During her five years at Binghamton, Kelly compiled a record of 94-22, including a mark of 75-13 in the program's final three years at the Division II level, and her squads won New England Collegiate Conference (NECC) titles in 1999 and 2000 and Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference (ECAC) titles in 2000 and 2001. She was named ECAC Coach of the Year in 2000 and New York State Coach of the Year in 2002. Kelly started her collegiate coaching career as the graduate assistant coach at Minnesota State University, Mankato from 1996 to 1998. While she was at Minnesota State, Mankato she earned a master's degree in physical education with an emphasis in sports administration.

Before her success in the coaching ranks, Laurie Trow Kelly was a standout player at the University of St. Thomas from 1989 to 1993 and is recognized by many as one of the greatest players in NCAA Division III history. A gifted athlete, the 6-1 Kelly scored 2,607 points and pulled down 1,204 rebounds in four years, earning Kodak All-America honors three consecutive seasons. In her senior season (1992-93), Kelly was voted National Player of the Year by the Women's Basketball Coaches Association after averaging more than 26 points per game. She set 22 conference and 24 school records, was conference MVP three times and was also named Midwest Sports Channel NCAA Division III Women's Athlete of the Year. In January of 2006, Kelly was one of five players selected to the NCAA Division III 25th Anniversary Team.

Laurie Kelly is the ninth head coach in the history of the Gustavus women's basketball program. In addition to her coaching duties, Kelly serves as the coordinator of the Gustavus Health Promotion program (GHP). The Gustavus Health Promotion program offers employees at Gustavus a variety of educational opportunities, assessment tools, and physical activity experiences so that they can achieve and maintain a healthy lifestyle.

Kelly lives in St. Peter with her husband, Matt, and their two daughters, Morgan and Madison.
